How great and boundless is the multitude of Your compassions, O Lover of Mankind! In Your longsuffering, You were struck by the Jews. You were probed by an Apostle. You were examined by those who doubted You. How could You take our flesh? How could You endure crucifixion, O Sinless One? Give us understanding, that with Thomas we may cry to You: Glory to You, my Lord and my God!

— Vespereal Hymn for St Thomas Sunday —

Christ is Risen! Indeed He is Risen!
